

Mickfield Village Centre Questionnaire – November 2014

Dear Resident / Village Centre User,

The Parish Council is concerned about the current lack of use of the Village Centre Building and would like views and suggestions on how the Parish Council and Village Centre Committee can make the Centre more attractive and useable for the needs of the local community. Your responses will help us draw up plans for the Centre's future.

This questionnaire is being delivered to all households in the village. Questionnaires need to be completed by 22nd November, results will be published via Parish Council minutes (posted on Village notice board) and via the Village website.

We would be grateful if you would spend a few minutes to complete and return it, via one of the following:

- A) Post to Davina Lynk (Chairperson of Parish Council) Dragon Cottage, Mickfield (at the cross roads)*
- B) Complete and give to Parish Council members who will collect on Sunday 23rd November – if out please leave on doorstep*
- C) Scan and email to messenger@mickfieldvillage.co.uk*
